

Collection of contact information according to the state regulation on the new version of the corona control regulation (rendered on March 06 2021, in effect from March 08 2021)

Please state your contact information below. Note the information on the processing of your contact information. Thank you!

1. contact information

date:
first name:	last name:
address:
phone (non-mandatory):	e-mail (non-mandatory):

2. obligation to provide information according to art. 13 sections 1 and 2 general data protection regulation (Datenschutz-Grundverordnung, DSGVO) responsible: Dr. Christian Ring, Seebüll 31, 25927 Neukirchen, phone: 04664 – 98 39 30, e-mail: info@nolde-stiftung.de data protection officer: Bülent Kremser, Seebüll 31, 25927 Neukirchen, phone: 04664 – 98 39 319, e-mail: datenschutz@nolde-stiftung.de purpose of processing, legal basis, legal obligation for collection of contact information

To ensure effective tracing of ways of infection if need be, Nolde-Stiftung is obliged to collection of contact information according to: art. 6 section 1 item c DSGVO iV.m., art. 4 section 2 state regulation on the new version of the corona control regulation.

recipient for collected contact information

Contact information shall be passed on upon request of the responsible authority (i.e. public health department) if needed for tracing of possible ways of infection.

This sheet will be stored for four weeks and destroyed immediately afterwards.

Your rights: As the person affected by the collection of your contact information you have the right to disclosure about said information, the right to correction of said information as well as the right to deletion of your contact information when the period of mandated storage has expired. Regardless, responsible will delete your contact information when the period of mandated storage has expired. You have the right to appeal with the data protection supervisory authority (state representative for the protection of data, Holstenstraße 98, 24103 Kiel, www.datenschutzzentrum.de)